

COUP UNSEATS PRESIDENT OF EL SALVADOR

Fifth Latin American Government Is Overthrown Since Beginning of The Year

CLAIM CAPITAL CALM

Guatemala, Guatemala, Dec. 15.—(AP)—A military coup has unseated President Salvador Castaneda Castro of El Salvador after a day of fighting, direct reports from the capital said today.

The President's desire for extension of his four-year term of office for another two years from March 1, 1949, appeared to be at least one of the factors leading to a constituent assembly to pass on that question were to be held Thursday and Friday.

Four Latin American governments were overthrown earlier this year. These were in Costa Rica, Paraguay, Peru and Venezuela.

A distinction of El Salvador is her size. A little larger than Maryland, she is the smallest of the Central American republics. Fronting on the Pacific between Guatemala and Nicaragua, she has a total area of 13,173 square miles. Coffee is the main base of her economy. The population totals 2,018,885.

Usually reliable sources said Castaneda resigned late yesterday and was taken to police headquarters in San Salvador, the capital. The city was calm after hours of fighting.

The army, a force of five divisions, was reported in control of the country.

San Jose, Costa Rica, Dec. 15.—(AP)—Leader of 38 captured rebels will be brought here today for questioning by the Costa Rica government, which charges he is a Nicaraguan.

The government said the captives were Nicaraguan national guardsmen taken yesterday near the rebel-held Costa Rica city of La Cruz 30 miles from the border. The leader was identified as Pedro Jose Ordonez.

José Figueres, head of Costa Rica's military government, is directing his campaign from headquarters here.

CITY BOOSTING PAY

Cornellville, Dec. 15.—(AP)—City employees, including firemen, policemen and street workers, are to get a $10 monthly pay raise Jan. 1. It will cost the city about $8,000 a year.

Rain Turns To Sleet Causing Hazardous Driving Conditions

By The Associated Press

A drizzling rain, turning to sleet, fell in many sections of Pennsylvania today, causing hazardous driving conditions on the highways.

The sleet bureau at Harrisburg said the sleet conditions centered largely east of the Allegheny Mountains where the temperature dropped below freezing of 32 degrees.

There was some snow in the eastern area, around the Allentown, Wilkes-Barre and Williamsport areas.

"The first snowfall is still out of sight," the weatherman said in Philadelphia, discounting the few scattered flakes of recent days.

"It will warm up enough this afternoon," he added, "to change it to rain and that will continue through the night."

The freezing rain and sleet brought a warning to automobile drivers throughout the state to be cautious. The weatherman said only ground temperature above freezing have kept the roads from icing.

A light rain fell in the Pittsburgh area but the temperature generally in western Pennsylvania kept above freezing.

The forecast for eastern Pennsylvania was cloudy and colder with snow probably changing to sleet or freezing rain and then turning warmer.

In western Pennsylvania, the forecast was cloudy and colder with rain in southwest portion and freezing rain or sleet in east and north with an upward temperature tonight.

Fight For G. O. P. Helm Looms With Reece Bidding For Post

Washington, Dec. 15.—(AP)—A struggle for control of Republican machinery loomed today with reports that Carroll Reece may challenge National Chairman Hugh Scott in a comeback attempt.

Scott, a Philadelphia congressman, replaced Reece as chairman of the House Committee on the Judiciary of New York won the party's congressional nomination.

Although Scott has given every indication he intends to fight to hold his job, Dewey's November defeat has produced a crop of prospective opponents.

Besides Reece, others mentioned include Rep. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, who is returning from Congress, Tom Coleman, former Wisconsin state chairman and a supporter of Harold E. Stassen, and Senator John Cooper of Kentucky, defeated for re-election.

Backers of Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio, were credited with Man Suspected Of Stealing And Handing Over to Russia Pre-War Secrets Is Sought

Washington, Dec. 15.—(AP)—A member of the House Un-American Activities Committee said today it has a report that detailed information on the Norden bomb sight leaked out to Russian representatives as early as 1938.

This member, who would not permit the use of his name, said the report was obtained orally by a committee investigator and the committee is now pursuing it.

In 1938, the Norden bomb sight was one of the United States' biggest military secrets. Some army men boasted that bombardiers could hit a pickle barrel from three miles up, using the sight.

In actual combat, it never proved that good, but was a highly successful sight by comparison with what was available to other nations.

The house committee member did not say where the Russians were reported to have obtained information on the sight.

However, yesterday, the committee said that highly important and detailed information on secret weapons had been channeled out of the Army's Aberdeen (Md.) proving ground in the late 1930s.

The committee informant said the information reportedly leaked out through a civilian employee of the War Department still believed to be in the government service.

Committee sources also said a man suspected of stealing military secrets and handing them over to the Russians may be hailed before the spy hearings later this week.

The secrets are supposed to have come out of the Aberdeen Proving Ground on Chesapeake Bay north of Baltimore. There was no immediate hint as to their nature beyond the claim that they included "formulas, descriptions and leading information involving our hitting and our defensive power."

As the House Un-American Activities Committee pushed its spy hunt into this new field:

1. Acting Chairman Mundt (R-SD) said "The feeling on the committee is unanimous that there is a Soviet Espionage ring operating in Washington now." He said the government has done "Not one, single, effective thing to prevent it."

2. The committee tried to prod a New York grand jury into coming out with indictments "of all guilty parties" connected with a Soviet espionage ring that was in committee words, "abetted and abetted by officials and employees of our own government."

3. Arrangements were made for serial publication of all but four of the secret papers obtained from Whittaker Chambers, former Communist courier. The four are still regarded by the state department as likely to injure national security, but the others will be released in batches starting tomorrow.

4. The committee said that starting tomorrow it expects to "exercise the full authority of its subpoena and the other authorities granted it by congress."

That appeared to be notice to the Justice Department that the committee is waiting only 24 hours more for a chance to summon Chambers and other key witnesses for questioning.

Whether the committee will get around to the Aberdeen phase this week also appeared to hinge in part on whether it could get any of the witnesses who have been busy in New York.

The new twist in its inquiry was (Turn to Page Eight)

CONDITIONS IMPROVE AT TRAINING SCHOOL

Pittsburgh, Dec. 15.—(AP)—Morgantown, State Training School for Boys, was considered for improvements under an eight-point program submitted today by the Public Charities Association of Pennsylvania.

The group suggested more cooperation between the school and the State Department of Welfare. It urged the firing of "incompetent and undesirable members" of Morgantown's staff.

Five of the eight points suggested trustees of Morgantown set up qualifications for "all positions" at the school.

SOVIETS CAST 29TH VETO IN U. N. COUNCIL

Rejection of Ceylon's Membership Is 7th Country Barred By Russian Bloc

ISRAEL ACTION DELAYED

Paris, Dec. 15.—(AP)—Russia cast her twenty-ninth veto in the United Nations Security Council today to keep Ceylon out of the United Nations.

The veto was Russia's second on Ceylon's membership bid. The Soviets now have used 13 of their 29 vetoes in the Council to bar seven countries from membership.

Before turning to the vote on Ceylon, the Council put off action on Israel's membership application until Friday.

Russia's Jakob Malik and Delegate Vassili Tarasenko of the Soviet Ukraine cast the only two votes against Ceylon. First they argued strenuously against recognition of Ceylon's application.

The 2-2 vote was the same as that at Lake Success last Aug. 18, when Russia first vetoed Ceylon.

The Council adjourned after the vote on Ceylon. The next meeting was scheduled for Friday morning.

The French motion to postpone action on Israel until Friday carried with eight votes.

The Council also accepted a suggestion from December President Fernand Van Langenhove of Belgium to postpone discussion of the Hyderabad complaint against India until next month at Lake Success.

Applicants for U. N. membership need at least seven of the 11 Council votes for approval, but any of the five big powers—Russia, the United States, Britain, France and China—can defeat the majority with a single negative vote. This is the veto.

"No other big country except France has used the veto on any question."

Russia now has vetoed membership bids by Eire, Portugal, Trans-Jordan, Italy, Austria, Finland, and Ceylon.

Crash Victims Are Rescued By Glider

Fairbanks, Alaska, Dec. 15.—(AP)—Six occupants of a crashed C-47 transport were snatched to safety from a frozen river yesterday in a glider pickup rescue.

The pilot of the C-54, which dropped and picked up the glider, described the maneuver as extremely hazardous. The pilot, Lt. Col. Eugene Strouse, explained the curve of the river, trees and terrain afforded less than a 500-yard straightaway run at 10 feet altitude for the snatch.

The C-47 made a belly landing on the river in Yukon territory in 20-below-zero weather. The pilot said a dwindling gas supply forced him to land.

Search craft located the plane and the C-54 towing glider took off on the rescue mission. On arrival at the crash scene, the glider was cut loose and its pilot circled to a landing within 75 yards of the transport.

A snatch frame was erected across the river. The C-54 made four passes before contact was made and the glider with seven men aboard was jerked into the air.

Ladd field officials said the rescue was the first of its kind in the Arctic.

Former Senator To Take Bride Today

New Canaan, Conn., Dec. 15.—(AP)—Former U. S. Senator David Alken Reed of Pennsylvania was to be married here today to Miss Edna French, of Syracuse, N. Y.

Miss French is a cousin of his first wife, who died on June 9, 1947, after a long illness.

Reed, now 62, and French, 38, are both well-known figures in the Republican side in the Senate to which he first went in 1922, makes his summer home here.

Miss French, whom he described as a "devoted friend for many years of both myself and the first Mrs. Reed," has lived in Syracuse since the marriage license lists her age as 34.

Today's wedding will be at the home of T. Ferdinand Wilcox, a brother of the first Mrs. Reed as well as a cousin of Miss French.

The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Michael Barton of St. Mark's Episcopal church, in the presence of the former senator's two children, David Alken Reed, Jr., and Mrs. Charles Denby II.

Harrisburg, Dec. 15.—(AP)—The Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania informed the Public Utility Commission today that a $25,000,000 increase in local telephone rates in the state is an "absolute necessity."

Clarence W. Miles, general counsel for the company, made the statement at opening of hearings into the "fairness and reasonableness" of the proposed boost.

The company filed its increased rate schedule to become effective January 21, 1949. The Commission, however, suspended the proposed rates for six months until July 21, and ordered an investigation into their reasonableness.

The city of Pittsburgh and Allegheny county have protested the rate hike.

Air Force Embarrassed Over "Mystery Plane" For Dewey

New York, Dec. 15.—(AP)—The Herald-Tribune told a story today about a mystery plane—perhaps planned by bad election guessers as a presidential "flying flagship" for Gov. Thomas E. Dewey.

"An embarrassed Air Force," the Herald-Tribune said in a Washington dispatch, has "x x x x a 'mystery airplane' on its hands and, up to now, has managed to keep the situation quiet. Apparently, the craft is a sort of morning-after headache for Air Force and industry had guessers on the presidential election."

The newspaper said that "uncomfortable but persistent reports in Aviation circles are that the plane, a 'gold plate' Lockheed Constellation, was specially outfitted to become a flying flagship for 'President' Thomas E. Dewey."

"The Air Force's Military Air Transport Service, to which the super-de luxe 'Connie' has been assigned since Nov. 25, denied any knowledge of this background," the story said.

The service, however, "frankly admitted that the new airplane far outshines President Truman's Douglas DC-6 Independence in the splendor and appointments of what ordinarily would be a 60-passenger cabin," the newspaper said.

P. U. C. Opens Hearings On Phone Rates

Harrisburg, Dec. 15.—(AP)—The Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania informed the Public Utility Commission today that a $25,000,000 increase in local telephone rates in the state is an "absolute necessity."

Clarence W. Miles, general counsel for the company, made the statement at opening of hearings into the "fairness and reasonableness" of the proposed boost.

The company filed its increased rate schedule to become effective January 21, 1949. The Commission, however, suspended the proposed rates for six months until July 21, and ordered an investigation into their reasonableness.

The city of Pittsburgh and Allegheny county have protested the rate hike.

"I doubt that any utility in the history of this commission has pressed a more meritorious application for higher rates," Miles told the commission in a packed hearing room.

Miles' statement to the PUC was preceded by a short clash with Anne K. Alperin, city solicitor of Pittsburgh.

Miss Alperin demanded to know if Miles represented both the Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania and the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, its parent company.

She said knowledge of that fact was "eminently fair" in providing the background for the current hearings.

Chairman John Siggins, Jr., interrupted to explain the proceeding involved only Bell and not the A. T. and T.

Miles, however, said that he did represent at least one other Bell Company in similar hearings in another state—Maryland.

Charles E. Thomas, PUC chief counsel, said in his opening remarks the burden of proof for the increase rests with the telephone company.

The new increase would have jumped the monthly bill of $3.65 to $6.15 for residential and commercial users around 30 per cent in the larger exchanges and netted the company an estimated 16 per cent in revenues.

FIGHT PHONE RATE HIKE

Pittsburgh, Dec. 15.—(AP)—Allegheny county officials were in Harrisburg today to join in the fight against proposed rate increases by the Bell Telephone Co. They said they would intervene in the Public Utilities Commission hearing on the new rate schedule which would jump the county government's annual phone bill an estimated $18,836 over the present approximation of $66,081.

DEMO. CONGRESSMEN PLEDGED TO HARMONY

Harrisburg, Dec. 15.—(AP)—Pennsylvania's 16 Democratic congressmen will work as a team in supporting the Democratic program in the 81st Congress, says U. S. Sen. Francis Myers.

"It looks to me like we are going to have real team work for the next two years," commented Senator Myers in announcing the party unity after a pre-session caucus here yesterday.

Philip Mathews, Democratic state chairman, echoed Myers' sentiments and added that the delegation "is going to stand as a unit in support of our party program."

Myers said he will ask additional funds also for flood control planning, river maintenance, and lock operations and care.

President Truman had asked $4,600,000 for flood control planning, but congress finally approved $3,318,000.

Fightin' Mountaineers Feature Big Broadcast

New York, Dec. 15.—(AP)—The fightin' mountain boys of Hamilton county, Tennessee, are going to try to be more neighborly from now on.

Members of two feuding clans—the Parkers and the Harries—met here in the big city last night—on a radio-television show—and agreed they'll be no more rough stuff.

Former Deputy Sheriff Hill is Hatfield was on hand to referee the peace negotiations.

He said the end of the "Daisy Mountain feud" was "the best Christmas present" the area could have.

Two slayings and the wounding of seven other persons have been attributed to the feud in less than a year.

But all looked peaceful last night as Mrs. Ethel Parker shook hands with Francis Harris, 21, on Columbia Broadcasting System's televised show, "We, The People."

"Anonymous" Family Helping To Make Alias Santa Happy

A big man wearing a wide-brimmed black hat, a long black cloak and dark glasses slipped quietly into the Times-Mirror office today and stood by the counter without saying a word.

But the disguise didn't fool the office staff.

"Why Alias Santa Claus," they chorused, "Why all the cloak and dagger stuff?"

"Oh nothing in particular," Alias Santa replied, "but everyone else is acting mighty mysterious so I thought I would play a little game myself."

This left the office staff more puzzled than ever until Alias Santa explained.

"Look at today's list of contributions: A Christmas Greeting card with $2.00 from Grandma Anonymous in Sheffield; $5.00 from a Brookston friend, $10.00 from Mr. Anonymous, $1.00 from Cousin Anonymous, and another greeting card with a $5.00 enclosed from 'L and M.'"

"Understand, I'm not complaining. No sir, not a bit. I want everyone in the district who feels he would like to make Christmas mean something for youngsters and older folks to send in whatever they can spare in the way of money, clothes, toys or blankets."

"But mysteries do something to me—I guess I always wanted to be a detective."

"Well, Alias Santa," the office said, "you'd better stop masquerading and get to work. Here's another list of contributions, and there's no mystery about them."

"The Ladies of the Warren Lodge of Eagles sent us over a can containing $9.34 in coins."

"Stuart J. Myers sends along a check for $25, and here's another check for $5.00 from Mrs. E. A. Arnold."

"And over there in the corner are five boxes of clothing and toys. That big one was sent over by the May R. Stone Class of the First Presbyterian Sunday School, and the other four come from Mrs. Charles Barrett of the Warren-Jamestown road."

PEACE TALKS ARE REPORTED IN PROGRESS

A. P. Correspondent Says There Is No Doubt In Capital Discussions To End War Under Way

COMMUNISTS ADVANCE

BULLETIN

Washington, Dec. 15.—(AP)—Undersecretary of State Lovett indicated today that Madame Chiang Kai-Shek has been unsuccessful here in her mission of obtaining stronger American support for the Chinese National government.

Lovett indicated this at a news conference at which he also said that American policy toward China calls for dealing with the Nationalist government under Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek. That policy, Lovett said, was determined by Congress and is being carried out by the administration to the best of its ability within the limitations (presumably meaning congressional limits on volume of aid).

Nanking, Dec. 15.—(AP)—President Chiang Kai-Shek's top advisors are urging him to give up control of China's crumbling government and let others try to save the pieces.

This apparently would mean peace negotiations with the Chinese Communists.

The generalissimo's intimates have discussed this among themselves for weeks amid China's deepening crisis, but it was learned reliably today they finally made such a recommendation to him directly.

Chiang has shown no indication he will resign, despite tremendous pressure.

From isolated Peiping, Associated Press correspondents Spencer Moosa reported there is no doubt in that ancient capital that peace talks with the Chinese Communists already are in progress.

Moosa reported also that two Chinese Air Force transport planes managed to land at Peiping's south airfield and left quickly.

"They pulled out with high officials, supposed to include Dr. Hu Shih, former ambassador to Washington and now president of National Peiping University," Moosa reported. "He is reported to have received an urgent summons by Chiang Kai-Shek in Nanking and might be called into a cabinet post or even the premiership."

Meanwhile, the failure of Premier Sun Fo to take over the government promptly upon his return from Shanghai today indicated he is having great difficulty in forming a cabinet.

Sun, appointed by Chiang more than two weeks ago, is "resting" after surgical treatment in Shanghai, a friend said.

A number of government and Kuomintang (governing party) leaders expressed impatience with Sun's failure to complete his cabinet. The executive Yuan held its weekly meeting without the participation of either Sun or the retiring premier, Wong Wen-Hao.

The suggestion that others be allowed to try to salvage the remnants of the government was interpreted to mean—try to save what's left by negotiation with the Commun

Carol Festival Tonight Will Be Broadcast

Experience in past holiday seasons has taught that there are always many in the community who are unable to get down to Beaty Junior High School for the annual community Carol Festival presented by the High School Music Department, and it will be good news to those persons that WNAE will carry the full program over its FM facilities this evening.

The festival program will get under way promptly at eight o'clock and those who have had the pleasure of attending in other years will welcome announcement that the acapella choir will again join with the high school chorus, the Beaty chorus, and the high school orchestra in presenting this beautiful program of Christmas music.

As always, a very cordial welcome is extended to the public by the young school musicians and their directors.

RETURN GAME
J. B. Lelidg, Warren High Athletic director, today announced the Dragon basketball team will play a return game with the Jamestown Raiders at Jamestown on Feb. 8. The game was booked after Bradford cancelled a game with Jamestown on that date. The tilt probably will mark the final chapter in Warren-Jamestown athletic rivalry for some time to come, since Jamestown has voted to sever relations with Pennsylvania schools because of a difference in player eligibility rules. Warren beat Jamestown, 48 to 38, in Beaty gym last Tuesday.

The board of directors of the New Process Company of Warren, Pa., declared a dividend of $6.50 per share on the no par common stock, payable December 27, 1948, to stockholders of record December 17, 1948.

MOOSE MEETING
The next regular lodge meeting of Warren Lodge of Moose will be held on Wednesday, December 15th, at 8 p. m. This being the last meeting of the year, many matters of importance are to be handled, and all members are urged to be in attendance. Following the business session a fine lunch will be served by the committee.

SEASON EXTENDED
The Pennsylvania Fish Commission has granted Erie Commercial fishermen a 10-day extension of the current season which was to have closed Friday. Fishermen requested the extension to December 20 due to favorable weather and good catches. This season has been labeled the best in three years and about 25 tugs operating out of Erie harbor reported average daily hauls from 2,000 to 4,500 pounds.

FOUR CARS IN ACCIDENT
Although no one was injured, four automobiles were damaged to the extent of $1,000 in a collision at a Corry intersection Saturday. Slippery pavement was blamed by Corry police for the collision involving cars operated by Frank Barresi and John Pitt, both of Corry. Following the collision Pitt's car smashed into a parked truck owned by Henry Floss and a parked car owned by Harry Neff, police said.

TO BE RETURNED
John W. Givens, who has reportedly confessed to the bluegeon murders of two Baden, Pa. farm hands, will be returned to Erie for arraignment in Federal court on a charge of illegal flight to avoid prosecution. Givens, a parolee from an Ohio prison, was nabbed in Denver, Colo., where he had been working. He was indicted at Erie last year. Federal officials will probably turn him over to Beaver county authorities on the murder charge.

SPEAKS TO CLASS
Rev. Wayne Furman, pastor of First Methodist church, was very well received Tuesday afternoon in his special appearance before an eighth grade history class at Beaty Junior High School. In conjunction with study of the Civil War period, Joyce Furman prevailed upon her father to give a presentation of Ida M. Sugar Grove FFA Chapter Making Plans

Sugar Grove, Dec. 15—The Sugar Grove-Farmington Chapter, Future Farmers of America, discussed ways of earning money for the chapter and its regular work program at its regular meeting. Officers serving the chapter in the current school year are: President, Darwin Eckstrom; vice president, Roger Thelin; treasurer, Glen McIntyre; secretary, Floyd Devereaux; reporter, Ben Hoy; sentinel, Belmer Hitchcock, and advisor, Richard Farver.
Mrs. A. A. Grant was hostess for the Christmas dinner party of the Eastern Star East Mastrons. A chicken dinner was enjoyed at the Dew-Drop Inn on the Jamestown road and the evening was spent with cards at the Grant home. Prizes went to Mrs. Robert Mead and Mrs. Henry Shippe for high score; to Mrs. Leon Cable for consolation. Santa Claus in the person of Mrs. William Clark, distributed the gifts.
Mrs. John Stuart and Mrs. Scott Stuart, Sr., entertained their bridge club at the latter's home at a Christmas party. Mrs. Gerald Miller received the high score for the N. B. Club and Mrs. Ralph Abbott, for the Bridge Club. Gifts were exchanged from the Christmas tree. The hostesses were assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. Scott Stuart, Jr.
Mrs. Eva Bozard, of Olean, N. Y., is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Walter Storm, and husband.
Mr. and Mrs. Alton Brown and family, have moved to Chandlers Valley.
Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McIntosh and Harold Edin, attended the meeting of the Warren County Rural Letter Carriers held at the home of Robert Davis, Wrightsville.

Report Submitted By Visiting Nurse

The report of Nurse Helen Downey, presented at the December board meeting of the Warren Visiting Nursing Association Tuesday morning, showed eight new cases added to the rolls for the month, in addition to 21 carried over from the previous month and still under case.
As usual, chronic medical led the list of cases, with 16, while nine were acute medical, three surgical and one tuberculosis patient.
Besides 142 nursing calls and 43 office and telephone calls, Miss Downey attended the Warren Relief Association meeting, the District Seven nurses' meeting at Titusville, the meeting of the Needlework Guild board of directors and the Needlework Guild display and tea, where she collected articles given to the Visiting Nursing Association.
Donations to the agency for the month included 185 garments from the Needlework Guild, 28 garments from the Kitchen Class of the First Presbyterian church and $5 from the Needlework Guild.

Times Topics

CLEVER ERIE MOVE
Apparently stealing a star player from the opposing team, Erie city council Friday named Attorney George Schroeck second assistant city solicitor. Schroeck has been spearheading opposition to the city's recently adopted income tax.
TO SING "MESSIAH"
A singing group of more than 50 voices, composed of members of choirs of several Corry churches will perform "The Messiah" in the Methodist church there at 4 p. m. December 19, it has been announced.
HAS EYE INJURY
Jerry Hepler, nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Clair E. Hepler, Brookville, suffered almost complete loss of sight in his right eye following an accident in his home. The youngster had been working with a piece of leather and a fork when the leather snapped and the fork struck his eye with such force it pierced the pupil and lens.
ANTENNA COLLAPSES
A 102-foot steel television antenna tower being erected atop the Oliver Brothers Co. building on East Front street, Oil City, collapsed Saturday. The tower appeared to have folded in the middle and about half of it fell over the front of the building onto the thoroughfare. No person was injured nor were any cars parked in the area damaged.
IMPROVE SCHOOL LOT
A general recommendation will be made by the property committee of the Corry board of education that the school district proceed immediately with improvement of the property in Corry's fourth ward which was purchased several years ago for the erection of a new school building. Approximately $1,000 of the $5,000 fund set aside for ground improvement has already been spent.

AWAIT BANG'S VERDICT

A Crawford county Bang's disease decontrol committee is waiting for a verdict on a hearing held in Meadville last week before deciding whether it will carry its case further if Pennsylvania's Secretary of Agriculture Miles Horst decides against it. Committee Chairman Lloyd Smith has announced that his committee will make no decisions on action until Horst's answer is received.

ADmits Larceny

In Meadville Saturday James Knightlinger, Meadville, pleaded guilty to larceny when arraigned.

King of Meadville, pleaded guilty before the same alderman to larceny of a portable radio from French's Radio Service store. He was ordered to pay a fine of $25 and costs.

WITHHOLDING PLAN

Army and Navy paymasters will start withholding Federal income from pay of privates, seamen, generals and admirals alike next month. The only thing that can prevent it, officials said today, is for Congress to take quick steps after it meets January 3 to renew the special tax exemption given to the military during the war. That exemption, freeing all pay of enlisted men and $1,500 of the pay of officers from Federal income taxes, will expire automatically at midnight, December 31.

MANY QUESTIONS UNANSWERED

It seems entirely appropriate that the crucial evidence in the Whittaker Chambers investigation should have been kept in the same place that Mother Goose's pumpkin-eating Peter parked his wife. It wouldn't surprise us, comments James Thrasher in an editorial written for NEA Service and the Times-Mirror, in fact to learn that Mr. Chambers also had a stable of white mice ready to be hitched to the pumpkin, and by a touch of magic, turned into an eight-cylinder coach with Cinderella at the wheel. It's that kind of a case.

What puzzles us is not so much the facts, which are bizarre enough, but the mental processes of the principal figures in the case.

Why did Mr. Chambers conceal the evidence so long? True, he tried to see President Roosevelt and finally talked to Adolph Berle, then an assistant secretary of state. But apparently he did not take his microfilm evidence along with him. Maybe he fears Communist reprisal. But wouldn't he have been safer under wartime secrecy and voluntary censorship than he is now? Wouldn't his full disclosure have been more important during the war? Has he made a full disclosure even now?

And how about the feud between the Justice Department and the House Un-American Activities Committee? What's behind it? Who's covering up what?

First some Justice Department members said the Hiss-Chambers perjury lacked evidence. On the same day another member said the whole thing was "too hot" to discuss. The House committee really broke the thing open, and then the department went to work on it.

What does the committee think of Mr. Chambers, anyway? One member read a tribute to him into the record, praising him for his co-operation. Shortly afterward Rep. Richard Nixon, another member, objected to Mr. Chambers' being indicted now because it would spoil the chance of indicting others implicated, since the star witness would be a "convicted perjurer." Mr. Nixon may have misspoken or he may have been misquoted—although various reporters who heard him quoted him directly as saying "convicted." But the implication of doubt in Mr. Chambers' veracity remains.

Why, if it suspects that his testimony is perjured, does the committee want to go ahead with its investigation with such speed? Why, if they trust Mr. Chambers as much as their recorded tribute would indicate, do they fear a perjury indictment—which isn't a conviction. And why did the Justice Department try to suspend Congress' right of investigation if it thought Mr. Chambers was a perjurer?

Also, what's with Alger Hiss, who, we seem to recall, was the negative pole in this charged-up affair when the sparks first started jumping?

WRONG DIRECTION

Venezuela's deposed President Gallegos still says that American oil interests had a hand in the bloodless revolution that ousted him, in spite of State Department denials. He also says that a friend saw an American military attaché in a rebel barracks at the time of the coup.

We don't know whether the officer was there, or what he was doing if he was. But we think it safe to assure Mr. Gallegos that Washington would have no interest in seeing the overthrow of the one South American government most like our own.

We would suggest that Mr. Gallegos at least cast a suspicious eye southward, where President Peron is solidifying his dictatorial rule of Argentina. Sources in Chile and Colombia have accused the Argentine government of stirring up trouble in their countries and plotting to install Fascist governments all over South America. And Venezuela's revolutionary junta has all the earmarks of a Peron-model regime.

GRANDMOTHER PLAYS SANTA

Stamford, Conn., children who visited Santa Claus at the C. O. Miller store last week found a round little fellow with apple red cheeks and twinkling blue eyes, who jingled sleigh bells and sang jolly Christmas songs, says Pathfinder.

They didn't suspect that "he" was really a quite feminine grandmother. In fact, they hadn't suspected in all the four years Mrs. Margaret Wills has played the part.

She plays it well, partly because she loves children and enjoys being Santa and partly because of her theatrical background. Mrs. Wills began to act when she was a child on the Isle of Man, played for several years in England and Scotland. Her contralto singing voice has a baritone quality and she learned to assume a masculine speaking voice years ago when she played a boy's role in

Here And There

Here's an air mail letter from Brisbane, Australia, that makes interesting reading, and which we hope, may bring to the writer desired results. It is addressed to "The Editor, Times-Mirror," Warren, Pennsylvania, U. S. A., and says: "Dear Sir: Please forgive my audacity in writing to you, but any assistance you can give me in the following matter will be greatly appreciated. Firstly, I would like to explain my position. I am an invalid R. A. A. F. pilot, having lost a leg and an arm during the war. As I am paralyzed from the waist down I have been bedridden since my discharge. To help occupy my mind, I would like to collect a collecting hobby. I am writing to you requesting assistance. Do you think that any of the readers would have for sale some books, magazines, curios, medals, swords, knives or anything which would provide an interest and help me to pass the time? Of course, the purchase price would have to be reasonable as my sole income is a war pension. Thank you for your valued assistance and I wish you, your staff and readers a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. Yours very sincerely, R. Francis, Care Box 2141-W-GPO, Brisbane, Australia."

This And That: Now that the deadline has passed for entering the Outdoor Residence Lighting Contest sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, it is expected that home decorating will be started in earnest during the next few days. Present plans are for the five judges to inspect the entries next Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, if weather and driving conditions permit. . . . Seventy employees of the South Penn Oil Co., with ten or more years of service were presented emblems in recognition of their long employment with the firm at a luncheon at the Hotel Emery in Bradford Saturday. More than 162 officials and employees attended the affair.

Manager George Sarvis, of the Library Theatre, announces that Santa Claus will be on hand for the annual Kiddies' Christmas party at his playhouse at ten o'clock on the morning of December 24th. The party is sponsored

YEARS AGO IN WARREN

Interesting Items Taken From The Warren Evening Times

1939
Do you know? says a quiet little ad in the corner of the paper, that you can buy a brand new 1939 Buick Special Four-door Sedan delivered in Warren for $1040? The date on the paper is 1938. . . . Prutz's are selling Arrow shirts for two dollars. . . . And Lewis' T-bone steaks are 19 cents a pound. . . . Warren Penna, local quintet beat Indianapolis Kautsky All-Americans 48-41, with Bill Laughlin, Bud Jeanette, Bill Holland and Deac Stankey pulling up the score. . . . Mrs. Selma W. Miller held a recital with Edith Bines, Helen Richards and Adelaide Etlinger participating. . . . Carroll Fowler in charge of the vocal work in the public school music department, announced the program for the first annual winter concert to be given by the Warren High School Capella Choir. . . . The Times-Mirror Christmas has augmented by twenty dollars. Proprietors of the newly decorated and remodelled Style Shop, Gilbert F. Johnson and Carl G. Lundahl are receiving congratulations from well-wishers. . . . A Chautauqua quint beat the Dragon varsity, 24-21. . . . A new Plymouth could be bought for $675, F. O. B. . . . and Bartsch & Sons were offering a Christmas tree free with every purchase of ten dollars or more. . . . Warrenites were urged to guard against flu to keep the epidemic from spreading as it did in 1918 when half a million lives were lost in this country alone. . . . There were rumors that the old Struthers Hotel would be revived soon.

The High School football squad and their friends were guests at a party staged by the Elks. J. B. Leidy was honored guest and the following received miniature gold footballs: A. Radio Studio Adds Device For Recording

WNAE and WNAE-FM have added a new piece of recording equipment to their studios that will make delayed programs heard on WNAE-FM sound so life-like, it will be impossible to tell they are recorded. Since the early sign-off hours on WNAE, all the evening news and sports shows have been recorded for later broadcast on WNAE-FM. Up to date, these recordings have been done on wire, which has been satisfactory, but not of the quality desired.

In the last few days, a new high fidelity tape recorder has been added to the studio equipment which produces recordings that are so exact a duplication of the original broadcast that even the transmitter engineers can't tell what is recorded and what is live.

This new recording equipment will be used mostly in the studio.

but it is portable and can be used outside when high fidelity recordings are needed. The first outside recording scheduled will be a half hour program by the St. Joseph's Girl Choir that will be heard on Sunday morning at 10:00 o'clock.

This new tape recorder is the first recorder of this type that has been installed in any radio station in the area and has been the center of interest of broadcasters in surrounding stations.

FM listeners will note the following change in the evening program schedule: 6:00—World Predicts, 6:05—News of the World, 6:20—Sports and 6:30 Warren News.

FUELWOOD AND CHRISTMAS CHEER

By William O. Keefer Pennsylvania Department of Forests and Waters

The following verses, adapted from an old English rhyme, give the small-woodlot owner a knowledge of what species of trees should be used for fuelwood purposes:

Logs to burn, logs to burn
Logs to save the coal a turn
Here's a rhyme to make you wise
When you hear the woodsman's cries.
Read these lines and really learn
The proper kind of logs to burn
Oaken logs will warm you well
If they're old and dry
Larchwood logs of pinewood smell
But the sparks will fly
Ashwood logs at New Year's time
Pine logs 'ame up well,
Hemlock logs it is a crime
For any one to sell
Birchwood logs will burn too fast
Chestnut scarce at all
Maple logs are good to last
When out in the fall
Good Holly logs will burn like wax
You should burn them green,
Elmwood logs like smoldering fax
No flame to be seen.
Pear logs and Apple logs
They will scent your room
Cherry logs across the dogs
Smell like flowers in bloom.
Beechwood is the Yuletide log
Burn it green or old
Buy up all that comes your way
They're worth their weight in gold.
Sunshine stored throughout the year,
Will bring to you warm Christmas cheer.

Little Advice On Driving In Snow Storms

Motorists will do themselves and the highway crews a favor if they keep off the roads during severe blizzard weather. Director of Highway Safety T. Elmer Transeau advises.

"Clearing the highways during time of storm requires considerable effort on the part of men who must battle the snow drifts and endeavor to sand slippery curves and grades," he pointed out. "A few vehicles in trouble on the road can delay road clearance and cause the occupants of the stranded vehicles anxiety and grief." Wait until the weather clears if you can, Transeau warned. But if you must drive, use every precaution to avoid accidents which can result from extra-hazardous weather and road conditions.

"Dimmed headlights may have to be used even in daylight when snow is falling heavily," he said. "Visibility further requires that windshield wipers and defrosting equipment be functioning well, and that the rear window be cleared of snow to afford vision to the rear."

"Traction is all-important, and that means that tire chains should be used whenever severe ice and snow conditions develop."

"Chains not only are an effective self-help to prevent skidding, but they also serve as a guard against becoming stalled on hills or in drifts." It was pointed out that antiskid chains, while not duplicating summer stopping performance, do reduce braking distances from 40 to 50 per cent on snow and ice for passenger cars, and 60 to 70 per cent for heavier trucks.

Pedestrians were urged to double their alertness in crossing streets or walking along highways. Sometimes pedestrians walk in the roadway after plows have cleared a road surface, and the walkers owe themselves and the motorists the responsibility to watch where they are going. Pedestrians must realize the limitations of unequipped vehicles to stop on snow or ice, and to see clearly, Transeau said.

Hill-Dale Club Enjoys Christmas Dinner And Party

Sugar Grove, Dec. 15—The Hill and Dale Garden Club held its annual Christmas party at the American Legion Home, with the Auxiliary serving dinner at one o'clock to 25 persons.

Mrs. Scott Stuart, Sr., presided at the business meeting. Mrs. Andrew Lindell, program chairman, distributed the new year books, and a vote of thanks was extended to her and to Mrs. William Norbeck, who had prepared the programs.

A letter received from the Youngville Garden Club was read and the group voted a gift of money to the Salvation Army and to remember some other persons.

Mrs. Frances Dowd announced the program which included two duets, Christmas hymns, sung by Mrs. Carl Norbeck and Mrs. Frank Richmond, with Mrs. Harry Ludwig as accompanist. Mrs. Richmond also conducted the Christmas devotions; Mrs. Delmar Mickelson gave a paper on "Christmas Flowers" and Mrs. Richmond gave a reading.

Mrs. Frank Dorn was in charge of the exchange of Christmas gifts.

Those in charge of the affair were Mrs. Richard Manross, Mrs. J. A. McIntosh, Mrs. John Ramsey, Mrs. Ralph Abbott, Mrs. Richmond, Mrs. Dowd and Mrs. D. H. Haggerty.

Reading Club At Sugar Grove Has Christmas Party

Sugar Grove, Dec. 15—The annual Christmas party of the Sugar Grove Reading Club was enjoyed by 15 members and guests at the home economics house. A delicious dinner was served from a table attractively set with point-settles and candle centerpiece.

Following the dinner, the president, Mrs. Travers Stohberg, conducted a brief business meeting and a program on the theme, "Gems of Christmas Literature and Music" was presented by Mabel Reese and Arlene Hildale.

Carols were sung, with Mrs. Stohberg as pianist and the Christmas Story from Luke was read by Mrs. Scott Stuart, Sr. Mrs. Stohberg sang "Jeanie Bawn" and Doris Stockton gave a reading, "The Gift of the Magi" by O. Henry. Miss Hildale read one of Clarence Hawkes' lovely poems, "The Beautiful Old Christmas Story," and the group signed a Christmas card to be sent to the author, who has been a cripple and blind from childhood.

Contests were enjoyed with prizes going to Mrs. Scott Stuart, Jr., and Mrs. Frank Dorn. Gifts were exchanged in a clever manner and the group adjourned to meet January 4 at the home of Mrs. Roy Briggs, with Josephine Ricker giving a book review.

Serving as committee members for the evening were Miss Reese, Miss Hildale, Mrs. Stohberg, Mrs. Atkins, Miss Thomas, Mrs. William Norbeck and Mrs. Dorn.

Youngsville BPW Holds Christmas Dinner And Party

Youngsville, Dec. 15—The annual Christmas dinner of the Business and Professional Women's Club, was held in the 100F dining room, which was very pleasantly decorated with Christmas greens and tall red candles. Place cards and song sheets bore pictures of a smiling Santa. A delicious turkey dinner was served by the Lady Gray Rebekahs. Between courses and at the close of dinner, popular Christmas songs and familiar carols were sung, with Mrs. Laurel Whitmore as leader and Goldia Hill at the piano.

During the business session, with President Dorothy Retterer presiding, several letters were read, including cards of thanks from those remembered during illness and acknowledgement of a Red Cross gift. It was voted to have 100 copies of the new by-laws printed for distribution among the members.

A vote of thanks was extended to the hostesses, Goldia Hill, Rosadell Galmish, Dorothy Retterer, and Pauline Halfast, and to the Rebekah Lodge.

Gifts were exchanged, each attractively wrapped, and the party concluded with a social time and more carol singing.

W.C.T.U. News

CENTRAL UNION

Warren Central W.C.T.U. held its regular meeting of the program. Devotions were in the form of a pageant given by Mrs. Duff, Mrs. Bessie Johnson, Mrs. Ruth Knappenberger, Mrs. Edith Haglund, Mrs. Goldie Brownell, concluding with singing of several familiar carols. Mrs. Iva McWilliams gave the story of "The Magic Christmas Tree," Mrs. Kittner told how "Silent Night" was written, and Mrs. Duff told of Christmas in other lands.

During the business session, $15 was sent to Mother Moore for Christmas for the soldiers and sailors, nurses, WACS and WAVES in the hospital at Philadelphia. In addition, a nice amount of canned goods was brought for a Christmas gift to a family in town. Each member was urged to bring a new member to the meetings, the W.C.T.U. Benediction was given, and the meeting was concluded with serving of refreshments by the committee.

Brotherhood At St. Paul's Holds Meeting

A beautiful arrangement of candles and Christmas greens featured the December meeting of St. Paul's Lutheran Brotherhood, held Tuesday evening in the small auditorium of the church.

During the business session, the entire staff of 1948 officers was elected for 1949 and it was decided to contribute a substantial sum to Lutheran World Action.

Pastor Nore Gustafson, as speaker of the evening, stressed the numerical strength of 80,000,000 Lutherans in the world and emphasized the fact that in the United States Lutherans are the third largest Protestant denomination.

He spoke of the fact that in 1532 the Danish Lutherans organized in Venezuela the first Protestant church in America, years before the Pilgrims landed at Plymouth Rock. In 1619, he said, Danish Lutherans conducted the first Protestant communion in the United States. Swedish Lutherans in Delaware first translated the Bible into the Indian language.

He concluded with the reminder that at present a great deal of thought and effort is being put into a plan to unite the various groups of Lutherans into one strong unit, and cited Detroit, Mich., with 250 Lutheran churches, as an example of numerical strength in the large cities.

The serving of delicious refreshments concluded a very interesting and profitable evening. Hosts were Hilmar Roos, Walter Ryden, C. Petersen and O. B. Strondahl.

Something About Yule Tree Industry

State College—The Yule tree which adorns your home on Christmas was worth only one cent when it began its life.

But today's $3 tree didn't keep its one-cent value very long, Frank T. Murphy, professor of forestry extension at the Pennsylvania State College, explains.

Planting doubled its value. Then began from 8 to 15 years of almost constant attention, taxes, and insurance. Harvesting and marketing, including shipping expenses, added to the cost.

The Christmas tree industry in Pennsylvania began in the Pocono Mountain swamps, Murphy reminds, and now has spread to all corners of the State. There are hundreds of growers and the two largest produce only one-tenth of the total output.

More than a million trees will be marketed this year and 80 per cent of them will be either Scotch pine or Norway spruce, Murphy says they will be found in homes from Boston to St. Louis.

Obituary

Unless otherwise stated, visiting hours at Warren funeral homes are from 10 a. m. to 12: 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p. m.

FRED LEVI SWANSON

Fred Levi Swanson, of Pleasant township road, died at the family home at 3:25 p. m. Tuesday, aged 66 years. He was born April 16, 1882, in Triumph township, Warren county, and came here about 40 years ago from Tidlo, W. Va. Well known in the furniture manufacturing trade, he was employed as a refinisher for many years. Prior to World War I, he served for three years in the regular army.

Besides his wife, Mary Marshall Swanson, he leaves three sons and one daughter, William J. Swanson, Jacksonville, Fla.; Marshall E. Swanson, Frederick J. Swanson and Mrs. Margaret S. Johanson, Warren; also two grandchildren; three sisters, Mrs. Augusta Larson, Titusville; Mrs. Margaret Satterlee and Mrs. Julia McGraw, Oklahoma City, Okla.

He was a member of St. Joseph's church and services in his memory will be held from the church at ten o'clock Saturday morning. Interment will follow in St. Joseph's cemetery.

Removal has been made to the Leo D. Gibson Funeral Home, where friends will be received at the usual hours, starting this evening, and from where the parish rosary will be recited at eight o'clock Friday evening.

Safety Rally Held Here By Railroaders

One hundred and twenty-one railroaders were present at the Warren district safety rally of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company employees held last evening at 7:30 in the Eagles lodge rooms on Pennsylvania avenue, west.

Master of ceremonies for the rally was Ray Cochran, of Buffalo, who introduced a series of division officials including E. P. Adams, division superintendent, present with his father, Perry Adams, an engineer on the division. The safety motto for the division is based on Superintendent Adams' initials, "Everybody Prevents Accidents." Every division official was present.

Henry, division trainmaster; J. W. Young, assistant master mechanic; P. N. Mansfield, supervising agent; and P. J. Murphy, captain of police.

On the program of entertainment were two sound films, "Transportation" and "Safe Operation." A song fest was led by Clair Dahlgren, of Sheffield, with Loren Wright, supervisor of Sheffield school music, at the piano. Mr. Dahlgren also pleased with several solos.

Following the formal program, a buffet lunch was served and door prizes given by the division superintendent awarded to the following: Stanley Olander, of Irvine; S. M. Johnson, Carl Swanson, H. W. Simpson and Guy Frick, all of Warren. The prizes were pencils and billfolds with Pennsylvania Railroad Company monograms.

County Safety Council Will Hold Meeting

Members of the Warren County Council, Governor's Highway Safety Advisory Council have been advised by their chairman, William P. Crossett, that the initial meeting of the group will be held on Thursday evening, December 17, at 7:30 o'clock in the city building, West Third avenue, with the guest speaker being Captain Joseph G. McCann, of the Greensburg troop headquarters of the Pennsylvania State Police, who is chairman of the sub-committee for District One at the state council.

Captain McCann is considered an authority on the aims and purposes of the council and will be able to present to the local members an outline of what will be expected of them.

It is anticipated that the Warren county organization will be perfected at this time and Chairman Crossett reminds that written suggestions relative to highway safety improvements may be presented to him at this initial session.

Clarendon Firemen Hold Christmas Party

The Clarendon Fire Department Auxiliary held a Christmas party for the firemen in the borough building last evening.

The time passed pleasantly with playing of five hundred and cote, with prizes awarded to Benny Lobell and Harold Wilbur for five hundred and cote, and Gilbert Nelson for cote.

Santa Claus put in an appearance and distributed gifts to everyone. At the close of the evening, a delicious luncheon was served by the auxiliary members.

Junior Can Bowl Like Mom and Dad

Youngsters can now bowl tenpins in Warren without having to try to handle one of those big 15- to 16-pound balls.

The Arcade alleys now have on hand two junior sized balls made especially for the younger set. They're smaller in size than the regular tenpin sphere and they weigh only 8 1/2 pounds.

Alley Manager Thad Lawson said the smaller-sized balls are popular for family bowling parties.

Market Quotations

New York, Dec. 15—(P)—Lackluster buying was enough to prop the stock market today. Gains ran from fractions to around a point, although at the same time numerous stocks were unchanged and a handful shaded a bit. Turnover slowed considerably and the ticker tape stayed motionless for long periods at a time.

New York, Dec. 15—(P)—Noon stocks: Vol. 370,000.

PITT WILL MEET OHIO STATE TEAM IN 1950

Pittsburgh, Dec. 15—(P)—Pitt and Ohio State will resume their football rivalry Oct. 7, 1950, at Columbus. The rivalry won't meet until Pitt officials said a new three-year agreement with Ohio State has been reached. Other games will be played Nov. 10, 1951, in Pittsburgh and Nov. 8, 1952, in Columbus.

25 ENTRIES LISTED IN LIGHTING CONTEST

At two o'clock this afternoon a total of 25 entries had been received in the Outdoor Residence Christmas Lighting contest sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce. Entries have been listed from Warren borough, North Warren, Pleasant township and Conewango avenue extension. Weather and driving conditions permitting the judges plan to judge the homes next Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. Home-owners competing in the contest should be prepared to have residences lighted for the judges on those evenings, unless conditions should compel a postponement.

Man Suspected of Stealing and Handing Over: Secrets to Russia

Spokesmen for the service, the story continued, "also confirmed that the airplane has been kept at the Washington National Airport for more than two weeks without any publicity whatever."

"In the same quiet fashion," the Herald-Tribune said, "Secretary of the Air Force W. Stuart Symington a regular crew has been qualified to fly the big 'Connie' by Lockheed's pilots—but, so far, Mr. Symington has shown no disposition to employ a craft which no one denies is 'a lot fancier' than the one used by the president."

"Seemingly," Mr. Truman has no interest in the new Lockheed—or in rescuing the Air Force from its dilemma—being quite content with his practically new if less sumptuous DC-8. Some of his friends say that the matter of a switch in aerial conveyances has been broached tactfully to him but that he just grins and starts humming, "I don't want it, you can have it, it's too swank for me," and the suggestions just sort of evaporate.

The Republican government of Indonesia asked the Security Council to hold a special meeting to consider the Dutch-Republican conflict in Indonesia.

The council's good offices committee reported yesterday it could not bring the Republicans and the advocates of a Federal interim government together in the islands and urged the existing truce would not last much longer.

It was understood at the Palais de Chaillot, however, that members of the Security Council hoped to defer the Indonesian question until the Council convenes again at Lake Success.

signation, although remaining available for a return to leadership should be needed at some future time. This was suggested rather than an absolute withdrawal.

Washington reports indicate Chiang can expect little as the result of his wife's visit to President Truman and Secretary Marshall.

On the warfronts, there is no encouraging news.

The government continues to claim local successes both in north Kiangsu and in the Anhwei fronts, where the bulk of Nationalist forces are encircled. But the overall picture of Communist domination is strengthened by the immediate threat to Peiping and failure of the trapped troops to break out southward to Nationalist lines.

Merchants Expecting Crush Of Last-Minute Shoppers

By SAM DAWSON
New York. (AP)—Jingle Bells aren't tinkling as merrily as they would this year in most stores. But some merchants see a crush of last-minute Christmas shoppers coming in the next two weeks that will bulge out their walls.
Even more merchants, however, are ready to write this holiday season off as a disappointment, with dollar and unit volume well behind last year. However, last year was a record, and many observers stress that this year's slower pace is much more normal and healthy than last year's buying spree.
Some merchants are having pre-Christmas sales on over-stocked items. Others are reported planning record markdowns for January clearance sales.
The group that thinks the Christmas spirit still will well up and overcome price resistance in the hearts of the nation's potential yuletide givers, bases its belief on the mild winter to date. A good snow will bring customers into the stores, according to this line of thought.
Whatever the cause, customers have been staying home. Department store sales in the last five weeks have been behind the same weeks of 1947.
Traditional Christmas items have been selling badly, as well as the more stable items of winter purchasing. Tree decorations, wrapping paper, books, candy and stationery sales are reported lagging.
Two of the major variety store chains reported November sales below the November, 1947, level. Nine others report sales up slightly over last year but the rate of increase smaller than it was earlier this year.
Mail order houses have much the same stories. Two of the largest sold less goods this November than last, and a third topped the year ago figure by a much decreased margin.
A survey of large stores in 15 cities by the national retail dry goods association shows many clearing merchandise now instead of waiting for the traditional January sales; others putting increased emphasis on bargain basement and budget department sales, far above last year; and advertising programs being pushed, although they had originally been based on expectations of sales increase of from 5 to 10 per cent over last year's holiday season. The slump in sales this year will make the proportionate costs of advertising unusually high for many stores.
The home appliance and furniture makers are watching retail sales anxiously just now. Supply overtook demand in most lines some time back, but many manufacturers hoped that the spirit of Christmas would loosen up the public's purse strings. Disappointing sales so far have spurred some of them to ask that installment buying restrictions be eased by the federal reserve board. The higher cash-down requirements are hurting sales, they contend.
But there are bright sides to the picture. Customers may be slow in buying more lasting gifts but they are flocking to the Christmas card counters. Toy manufacturers, also, are looking for a record sales year.
S. L. Reinschreiber, of Joliet, Ill., chairman of the national association of greeting card publishers, predicts this year's sales will top last year's record. Americans will exchange about 1 1/2 billion cards this Christmas, the association says.
Businessmen are paying 5 million this year to send out 16 million "thanks for your business" holiday greeting cards, according to Charles A. Ward, President of Brown and Bigelow of St. Paul, Minn.
American toy makers will produce a record 300 million worth this year, Kenneth P. Fallon, president of toy manufacturers of the U. S. A., predicts. They are basing their sales on the record-breaking increase in the population under nine years old—some 24 million children have been born since 1940.
Europeans are cashing in on the American baby crop, too. Foreign toys are back in U. S. stores in increasing numbers this year.

North Warren Students To Present Play

A three-act operetta, "A Christmas Trinket", written and directed by Helen Morrow and June Anderson will be presented by the pupils of the North Warren school at eight o'clock Thursday evening in the community house.
A cordial invitation is extended to the public by the students and their instructors.
At least 200 pupils of the school will be participating in the presentation. Mrs. Morrow has written the dialog and songs and Mrs. Anderson has written the music in this original production.
Seventh and eighth grade pupils from Mrs. Anderson's music classes will sing "The Night Before Christmas" and many others will be engaged in back-stage duties for the program.
Eighth grade art students have designed and constructed the set and seventh and eighth graders will handle properties, lighting and ushering duties.

Dragon Basketballers Maintain Clean Slate, Notch Sixth Win Over Corry Beavers, 37 to 27

Warren High Dragons made it six wins in six starts in Beatty gym last night by downing a stubborn, hard-fighting Corry five, 37 to 27. Ted Shattuck and Chuck Reese blew hot in the final stanza to widen the victory margin to 10 points, after a fairly close battle all the way.

The scrap brought to an end Warren's six-game home stand. The Blue and White will hit the road for the first time this season Friday night when they face the Sheffield Wolverines at Sheffield. Next Tuesday will find the Dragons playing a return game with the Corry Beavers at Corry.

The Beavers, sporting a tight defense and specializing in picking off passes, made it a tight ball game throughout the first two stanzas, and with a little luck on their own point-making efforts, the score might easily have been the other way around.

In the first stanza, the Dragons collected five points on one field goal and three good foul shots, while Corry was limited to a lone point, gained on a charity heave.

Things picked up a little in the second stanza, with the Massamen registering nine points to seven for Corry to give the home squad a 14-8 edge at intermission. Second half scoring was even better for both clubs. Warren notched 12 points in the third frame and 11 in the home stretch, against 10 for Corry in the third round and nine in the final period.

Shattuck capped individual scoring honors for the evening with 16 points, representing seven baskets and two free throws, while his teammate, Reese, was credited with 10 points on four twin-deckers and two foul tosses.

Joe Vanik, Corry guard, found the net five times on straight-away shots from way out front and made good a foul toss for 11 points.

The Beavers whittled Warren's margin to four points in 22-18 scoring in the closing minutes of the third stanza, but Shattuck came through with two quickies to widen the margin to eight notches in 26-18 scoring.

Fourth period action started with Vanik sinking a long shot for Corry, but the Beavers suffered a severe blow when Ottaway was benched on personal fouls. Bob Brumagim made a foul and Reese hit from out in front to make the tally, Warren 28, Corry 20. Vanik and Elston contributed a field goal and a free throw, respectively for Corry. Reese connected on a long arch as the officials called time with three minutes of playing time remaining.

When play was resumed, Shattuck picked off a Corry pass and dribbled in for a layup shot to make it 33-23. Pitts and Hughes

BOWLING

INDUSTRIAL LEAGUE

A new league high three-game mark of 670 pins was notched in Industrial tenpin league firing on Penn alleys last night by Paul Coppola of the Warren County Insurance squad. Paul blasted an opening game of 354 and added games of 222 and 104 in the second and third rounds.

Two other hot keggers shot far over the three-game 600 mark. Pete Juliano, of the West Penn Oilers, was credited with 647 pins on games of 217, 226 and 204, while Norm Wooster walloped the wood for 680 sticks on linescores of 226, 224 and 180.

In match point distribution, Timmie Bros. took three points from Kinnear's; Kinnear's Sports Shop split even with Warren County Motors; West Penn Clubbed Check Bros., 3-1; and Warren County Insurance capped three points at the expense of Warren Food Lockers.

Standings: W. L. Pct. Timmie Bros. 37 19 .661. Parr's 37 19 .661. West Penn 28 23 .550. Kinnear's 28 23 .550. Check Brothers 26 30 .464. Warren Co. Ins. 26 30 .464. Warren Co. Motor 23 33 .411. Food Lockers 19 37 .339.

Statistics On Grid Games Are Puzzling

New York, Dec. 15.—(P)—The old question: "What do you have to do to win a football game?" and its simple answer: "Score more points than the other fellows" finds painful expression on the campus of Hanover, (Ind.) College.

Because the Hanoverians led Trinity of Connecticut, their nearest rival, by more than a mile in capturing minor college total offense, rushing forward pass offense statistical honors in 1948.

Yet, they could do not better than win six out of eight. They dropped their opener to DePaul, won six in a row and lost their finale to Centre.

Hanover averaged 400.4 yards per game in rushing a total of 3,203 yards. The team averaged 233.8 yards per game in the air while compiling 1,790 yards on 96 completions in 157 attempts.

Susquehanna was the "passing est" team with 207 attempts, and Oberlin of Ohio had only five of 130 passes intercepted, to lead in that respect.

SALA ADDS ARMITAGE TO KNOCKOUT LIST

Pittsburgh, Dec. 15.—(P)—Lee Sala of Donora last night added one more to his long list of knockouts at the expense of his regional rival, Jackie Armitage of New Kensington.

A new crowd of 4,510 reportedly mostly from the home towns of the two fighters—saw Armitage go down and stay down after a left hook to the solar plexus at 1:53 of the ninth round, of a slated 10-rounder in the Gardens.

The win brought Sala's record to 48 without a loss and expanded his K. O. string to 34.

Ringsiders said Sala, had no trouble at any time in the fight and that he literally toyed with the New Kensingtonian in the rounds preceding the coup d'etat.

Sala weighed 160, Armitage 153.

Official Of Penelec Is On Air Inspection

M. J. Fulton, superintendent of engineering for Pennsylvania Electric Company is making his second air inspection trip by use of a helicopter over Penelec's 110,000 volt transmission lines.

Beginning at Warren yesterday, Mr. Fulton inspected the lines north of Warren and then proceeded west to Erie and will go south into Meadville and Johnstown continuing east through the Altoona area and will finally inspect the line between Warren and Ridgway and the Warren-Bradford transmission lines.

Mr. Fulton prepared a detailed record of the patrol indicating the nature and location of any damage or faulty condition with recommendation for their correction. The pole or structure is viewed from a comfortable, advantageous position and generally from close distance. The large wood cross-arms and large insulators are closely observed.

A Bell Company helicopter is used for the patrol. It is expected that it will require about five days to complete the inspection trip.

Round-Robin Tournament Louis Plan

Philadelphia, Dec. 15—(P)—Joe Louis put his official sanction today on a round-robin tournament to pick a challenger for his heavyweight title.

Joe listed six names: Lee Savold, Billy Conn, Gus Lesnevich, Bruce Woodcock, Ezzard Charles and Jersey Joe Walcott.

Then he said the round-robin shouldn't have more than four contenders. He was inclined to drop Lesnevich and Woodcock.

It was the first time since he knocked out Walcott in the 11th round of their second bout last June that he mentioned Jersey Joe as a potential challenger for a third time.

At Camden, N. J., Walcott said he felt he was still the No. 1 challenger for Louis' title.

"I feel I won one and lost one and should have another shot at the title," he said. "I'm ready to meet anyone who thinks he can knock me from the No. 1 spot."

Louis, toyed "th Arturo Godoy" in a six-round exhibition bout at Convention Hall last night.

Harry Markson, boxing director for the 20th Century Sporting Club was in town for the bout and said that Louis definitely will put his title on the line in New York next June, probably in Yankee Stadium.

"When are you going to make up your mind?" Louis was asked.

"Well, I think it ought to be the man who's standing out by April," replied the champ.

Louis was asked who he thought was his toughest foe on his exhibition tour.

"Conn looked pretty good in Chicago," Joe said.

Asked if he thought Billy could get in condition for a third crack at the championship, Joe said he didn't know. But he added that the Chicago exhibition, Conn looked as good as he did in 1946.
